Contributions to Shah Ally for Civil Court are not tax deductible for any purpose under the Internal Revenue Code. Contributions by individuals, associations, PACs, unions, partnerships and LLCs are limited to $33,093.35 per donor for the Primary Election and $47,559.05 per donor for the General Election. Partnership contributions over $2,500.00 must be apportioned by each partner's partnership interest. Contributions from corporations are limited to $5,000.00 in total aggregate giving to all New York State candidates per calendar year. Contributions to a judicial candidate totaling $2,500.00 by an individual or attorney, or $3,500.00 by a group of attorneys and their client may require reassignment of cases involving those individuals from being heard by that judicial candidate. See Rule 151 of the Rules of the Chief Administrator for further guidance. State Law requires that contributions be made in the contributor's own name and be made from the contributor's own funds. By responding to this invitation with a contribution you are affirming that your contribution is being made from your own personal funds, that you are not being reimbursed in any manner, and that your contribution is not intended to be a loan. You must be at least 18 years of age and a US Citizen or Legal Resident to contribute. If you have any questions, please contact John Bartos, (917) 363-7420 or john.bartos@gmail.com.
